First Committee

Agenda item 89 (p)

General and complete disarmament: Effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium

Effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium

The General Assembly,

Guided by the purposes and principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations and the rules of humanitarian international law,

Recalling its resolution 62/30 of 5 December 2007,

Determined to promote multilateralism as an essential means to carry forward negotiations on arms regulation and disarmament,

Taking note of the opinions expressed by Member States and relevant international organizations on the effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium, as reflected in the report submitted by the Secretary-General pursuant to resolution 62/30¹

Convinced that as humankind is more aware of the need to take immediate measures to protect the environment, any event that could jeopardize such efforts requires urgent attention to implement the required measures,

Taking into consideration the potential harmful effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium on human health and the environment,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Member States and the international organizations that submitted their views to the Secretary-General pursuant to resolution 62/30;

2. Invites Member States and relevant international organizations, particularly those that have not yet done so, to communicate to the Secretary-General their views on the effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to request relevant international organizations, to update and complete, as appropriate, their studies and research on the effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium on human health and the environment;

4. Encourages Member States, particularly the affected States, as necessary, to facilitate the studies and research referred to in paragraph 3 above;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to submit an updated report on this subject to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session, reflecting information presented by Member States and relevant international organizations, including that submitted pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 above;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty- fifth session an item entitled “Effects of the use of armaments and ammunitions containing depleted uranium”.
